This morning would be fine.

Do you want to review our file to assure I have included everything you might need or just trust my judgment and do that review later? I have included all the photos and videos I could find (including the 3-d mapping), the list of historical interactions from King County and a couple other things.

Good morning, Scott.

Brad or a colleague can pick up materials this morning before 11:30, this afternoon after 1:30, or tomorrow afternoon. What works best for you?

Anytime today except b/w 11:30 and 1:30 will work for me. I can also go tomorrow afternoon.

I will probably have Brad or one of his minions pick it up. EPA really locks down administrative rights to our computers.

Jeff

I have a thumb drive of materials for you on Pillon – the photos from the various sources, the timeline of interactions with Pillon by the County and the drone overflight stuff.

I would be happy to drop it off or if you wanted to pick it up we could look over the file to assure that you do not need anything additional.

Let me know,
